

To: Way, Steven[way.steven@epa.gov]
From: James Mullins
Sent: Mon 8/17/2015 10:48:47 AM
Subject: Re: When our river turned orange good luck.....stay in touch....hang in there.

Jim Mullins

On Sun, Aug 16, 2015 at 11:17 PM, Way, Steven <way.steven@epa.gov> wrote:

Jim,

Good to hear from you and I hope that you and yours are well. The situation is not quite what we planned on, but it's also not what has been reported either. Someday maybe I'll be able to tell people the real situation but at this point I'm not sure it matters.

Well time for bed - more long days, and lots of inquiry to begin in the middle of the response.....

Best wishes,
Steve

Sent from my iPad

On Aug 15, 2015, at 5:17 PM, James Mullins <Personal Email/Ex. 6> wrote:

A different and refreshing perspective

....

.

no response necessary

>

>

> This link is sent to you from <http://www.hcn.org>

>

> You are receiving this mail because someone read a page at

> High Country News

> and thought it might interest you.

>

>

>

> When our river turned orange

>
> Nine things you need to know about the Animas River mine waste spill.
>
> <http://www.hcn.org/articles/when-our-river-turned-orange-animas-river-spill>
> --
> High Country News
>
>

--
Respectfully
Jim Mullins